GENERAL HAVES' personal and political record is clear and clean. Not only this, but his personal surroundings and associates are pure and unobjectionable. Tilden's name is constantly associated with at Tweed, Morrissey, Kelly and other disreputables, while his personal record is besmirched with evidence most conclusive that he is an expert railroad swindler and

THE OPPOSITION press has been greatly angered by the fact that President Grant has made removals of certain officials who have not been as discreet as they might in supporting the Administration. In other words, the President has at last seen fit to reward his friends and punish his enemies, or his worse than enemies, who pretendedfriendship to his face while practicing enmity behind his back.

THE opinion is growing that Belknap was not so guilty as the House committee assumed him to be. His trial before the Senate Impeachment Court has taken a turn in his favor, the evidence failing to show that any corrupt bargain existed between him and Marsh. In short, it is be coming evident that if Belknap's case had been properly handled at the beginning the country would have been spared the disgrace inflicted by the pending trial.

GENERAL HAVES' letter of acceptance gontinues to receive words of kind approval at the hands of Republicans generally. His declarations in favor of civil service reform are especially commended. By the way, Representative Whitehouse, the chairman of the House Civil Service Committee, spent the enormous sum of $150,000 to se cure his election to the present Congress. As a specimen civil-service reformer from the Democratic ranks he will do to compare with our candidate for President.

THE DEMOCRATS have nominated Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, as their candidate for Congress, to succeed the late Hon. Edward Y. Parsons, and he has accepted. It is suggested that the Republicans will name Hon. B. H. Bristow, late Secretary of the Tressury, as his opponent. It is to be hoped that Mr. Bristow will accept, and give the young chairman of the Democratic National Reform Convention a free race. In this event the result can scarcely be doubtful. Bristow will come in ahead by several lengths.

After be ing sent to the House, on motion of Mr. Dawes, it was recalled, and has slace been lying dormant on the Clerk's desk in the Senate. We have no doubt that a Pacific cable would divide the profits of the preseat grinding cable monopolists of Great Britain, but it strikes us at the same time that American enterprise should not be destroyed in their interest. If Cyrus W. Field and his English associates have objections to the American scheme, let them be made known to the House committee to whom the bill shall be referred.

will be seen that evidence was elicited which would warrant the finding of thousands of indictments for violation of the election laws of the State during the late election. In view of the late decision of the Supreme Court as to the deficiency of "appropriate legislation" to enforce the constitutional amendments relating to franchise, it is presumed the grand jury tailed to present indictments in these cases. The attention of Congress is therefore invited to the necessity of perfecting legislation to insure the requisite protection of voters from intimidation and violence. Will

of this? MURTAGE, Proprietor, NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, THE selection of the Executive Committee of the National Republican Committee. the announcement of which will be found in our news columns this morning, will be greeted with satisfaction by Republicans generally. It is composed of shrewd, active and experienced politicians, who understand their duties and will not hesitate to perform them. It is a noticeable fact that in the selection due care has been taken not to recognize the claims of certain aspirants for promotion who have in the past proved themselves to be simple leeches on the party, always seeking honors and always incapable of yielding any commensurate benefit in return. These drones having been ignored, we have a working committee, and one that will insure success.

THE HEATED TERM appears to have had a bad effect upon the New York editorial fraternity. The Independent Press cannot understand why the President of the United States should make a change in his Cabinet without consulting that mighty engine of mischief. The President made the sad mistake of consulting the Constitution in regard to his duties instead of sending for the correspondents of Newspaper Row to learn what they would say about it, and the consequence is that the New York editors are in a pandemonium heat about it. This is sad, very sad. These fellows have been begging and praying for a batch of martyrs this long while, and now they have the material for them but have not the grace to be thankful for it.

Mn. W. H. Howand, of Texas, who was yesterday nominated for Surveyor General of Washington Territory, is an educated and accomplished gentleman, of verance which is admirably adapted to a new country. His Republicanism was rather too genuine and of a nature too radical to suit the Texan climate, consequently he felt impelled to migrate from that State after several years' hard service and the accumulation of considerable interests there on account of violent dangers which threatened his physical well-being. others of like kidney have been engaged in He left in such haste as to excite suspicions aiding Sammy to prepare this especial feat on the part of a clique of his neighbors that he did not desire such an escort to the station of his departure as they had proposed to give him. Being satisfied that he had left the neighborhood, they then searched for his minor son, in order to visit upon him the a polite attentions which the chivalric Tex. 3 so delight to lavish upon Republican carpet-baggers. The following editorial appeared in the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier on the morning of the 10th instant. This journal is the leading Democratic sheet of the State, and in the terrible slaughter at Hamburg it sees so much positive bar barity that it cannot stomach the crime. It says: "A-suming that the accounts of the Hamburg fight given by the Augusta newspapers are in the main correct, we find little, if any, excuse for the conflict itself, and absolutely none for the cowardly killing of the seven negro prisoners who were shot down like rabbits long after they had surrendered. The insolence of the negro militiamen, out of which the trouble came, could easily have been punished without a resort to arms. General Butler, who appears to have been in command of the whites. admitted that an apology by the militiamen would satisfy his clients. The affront to Mr. Butler, theretore, was not the immediate cause of the fight that followed. This was brought on by the demand that the militiamen surrender their arms into the keeping of the whites. The presence of armed bodies of negroes is a menace to any community; but we do not understand that the danger was such as to justify the whites in demanding the surrender of the arms, or in laying siege to the house in which the negroes took refuge, and killing the negroes who attempted to escape. The ' killing of seven of the prisoners was barbarous in the extreme. We have no words strong enough to express our condemnation of such a crime. They who ' do such deeds sow the wind. We pray 'that they and those who are innocent of the wrong may not reap the whirlwind. The editor of the News and Courier is more sagacious than most of his fraternity in the South. Elsewhere will be found full details of the massacre as printed in the News and Courier upon which the above comments were made. But in order to fully comprehend the diabolism of this sanguinary effort to preserve law and order in South Carolina it must be remembered that the colored troops who were parading on the Fourth of July were the regularly organized militia of South Carolina. They were properly parading in celebration of the Centennial Fourth of July. The parties who undertook to disarm and punish them were chiefly a mob of invaders from Augusta, Georgia. The question naturally arises: What will Govergor Chamberlain do about this matter? Will he supinely submit to this insult to Or will be demand the surrender of these assassins? The constitution of South Carolina does not authorize the disarming of the militia by private citizens. We shall soon see whether Governor Chamberlain has the nerve and energy to stand by his own militia in its proper observance of the anniversary of the natal day of the coun-

Apart from this view of the subject, the vengeance of this mob of assassins, this Georgia banditti, was the most barbarous which has yet occurred in the history of letter from the grand jury of the United | the country. The outrages in Coushatta States Court of the Northern district of and Grant parishes of Louisiava pale beside Mississippi to Hon. R. A. Hill, District it in demoniac fury. The fiends of hell

Senator Wallace yesterday received the folowing brief note from his son, Lieut. Wallace, who was with Major Reno during the terrible conflict with the Sioux: YHLLOWSTONE RIVER, July 2, 1876. My Dram Farmen: I have just crossed the iver, and now stand on our old battle-ground of August, 1873. Our noble regiment is almost obliterated, but a merciful God has spared a few. Of the five companies that were with General Custer not one man has been left to tell the story of the massacres. We entrenched ourselves and kept the Indians off as best we could. We did not have five hundred men, and were surrounded by most of the hostile Indians of the Northwest. They were splendidly armed and well disciplined, and fought like tigers. Congress and the country can not do too much for Major Reno and his brave

NAVY DEPARTMENT, } WASHINGTON, June 27, 1876. WASHINGTON, June 27, 1876.

General Order No. 213:

At a general court-martial, convened at the navy yard at Norfolk, Virginia, on the 7th of June, 1876, was arraigned and tried James A. Ring, an assistant paymaster in the navy, upon the charges of "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman" and "persistent and continued violation of the regulations of the Norfolk navy yard," and was found guilty of these charges, though in a less degree than charged, and sentenced as follows:

"To be suspended from rank and duty for the term of six (6) months from the date of approval of this sentence; to be paid during that period at the rate of nine hundred dollars ($900) per annum, and to be reprimanded in General Orders by the henerable Secretary of the Navy."

The proceedings, finding and sentence are approved, to take effect from the date of this order. In carrying out that part of the sentence which relates to reprimand it is necessary to advert to the fact that the Secretary of the Navy is now called on for the second time within a period of nine months to reprimand Assistant Paymaster James A. Ring, conformably to sentence of a general court-martial, General Order No. 193, dated in September last, contains the first of these reprimands.

It is to be regretted that the sense of shame pro-

imands.
It is to be regretted that the sense of shame pro duced in the accused by that order has not been strong enough to prevent him from committing further oftenses, and from thus doubly dishonor-ing himself and the naval service.

Every officer in the navy should cherish a re-spect for authority, law, regulation and gentle-manly decorned. Mr. Ring has, as this and the former coverties they between hot only diseamanny decoration. Mr. Ring has, as this and in former conviction show, betrayed not only a disre-gard for this duty, but a want of self-respec greatly to be deplored, and must now, therefore be again published, as an offender, in every navy yard, haval station and on every ship in commis-sion. Greo. M. Robesox, Secretary of the Navy.

GREAT REDUCTION OF BOARD AT THE CELEBRATED ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.—Owing to the depressed condition of the country the proprietor has determined to lower his charges, that all may be able to derive the benefits from the use of these justly celebrated waters. They need no recommendation to Washingtonians, since they have so fully established their efficiency through the thousands who have been brought from death's door to renewed health by the use of their wonderful medicinal waters. Since last summer the Chalybeate Spring, which was opened last year, has been thoroughly analyzed by Prof. M. B. Harden, of the V. M. I., of Virginia, and by comparison shows it to be fully as strong as "Hawley" of carbonate of Iron, having a small quantity more than one and a small quantity more than one and a small quantity less than the other two springs. So in addition to the water that has made these springs so famous, the proprietor takes pleasure in announcing that he can furnish those who may need to drink either separately or in connection with the more exclusived waters of these springs a pure carbonate of iron (chalybeate) water, interfor to none, and equaled only by flawley, in the State. This at the very cheap rates, with accommodation First monty previous years, with accommodation First monty previous years, also, weeks, $100.
